Support services excluded from contribution limit

Support services	Types of support
Social support	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Volunteer home visits</li><li>• Telecross telephone support services</li></ul>

You will only be charged for the support services you receive. However, if you cancel a support visit or service less than 24 hours before it was scheduled to start, we may charge you a fee up to the amount of your contribution amount.

There are contribution limits in place relating to the maximum amount you will pay per week, irrespective of the number of CHSP services you receive.

We will always ensure you receive the highest quality of care, regardless of your ability to pay. If you are under financial hardship, you may apply to Silverchain for a waiver of your contribution fees.

#Please note that some types of social support do not require a fee contribution. Refer to the table titled "Support services excluded from contribution limit".

*These costs should be paid for by the client and there is no contribution reduction.
